St. Patrick's Day Show Classes

Mark your calendars to begin on Sunday, December 12, 2010

10 weeks

All Show Class participants must also take a regular class and have formal costumes. Show class participation is mandatory if you want to perform in shows during St. Patrick's Day season and through the end of 2010.

Registration forms and more info will be sent home after the fall session begins.

REGISTRATION

Fall/Winter 2010-2011 Schedule:

Tuition is listed separately by the day/class.

You may not split attendance between two classes. Please attend the class/day you register for.

You may deduct $25 from a regular second class tuition* per session, per same dancer on form.

Missed classes may be made up at another class time/location, if available, during this current session only. Please note: Siblings may not make up missed classes for each other. There are no deductions or refunds for missed classes.

*10% discount on total tuition of 3 dancers or more in same family

Please complete the proper registration form found on the web site for

BEGINNER (New and Continuing) dancers OR ADVANCED BEGINNER and ABOVE dancers and mail with your tuition payment to:

Sheila Tully Academy of Irish Dance
1750 Glenview Road
Glenview, IL 60025

Tuition is due by the first class. A $25 fee will be assessed for all NSF checks and tuitions received after the 2nd class. There are no deductions or refunds for missed classes. +Missed classes may be made up at another class time/location during this current session+. At Sheila's discretion, class times may be adjusted and / or canceled based on a minimum of 8 students enrolled. Please check message board for class cancellations.
